

PROCLAMATION
2019 ALL URBANDALE READS
City of Urbandale, Iowa

WHEREAS, libraries and communities across America are celebrating National Library Week: Libraries = Strong Communities, April 7 – 13, 2019; and

WHEREAS, the City of Urbandale and the Urbandale Public Library recognize the importance of forging connections with local residents; and

WHEREAS, one book, one community programs like All Urbandale Reads have unified cities across the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Urbandale Public Library has selected “The Story of Arthur Truluv” by Elizabeth Berg, a story of love, loss, friendship, and reimagining aging as the 2019 All Urbandale Reads book; and

WHEREAS, the culmination of the 2019 All Urbandale Reads program will feature community book discussions, educational programs, and special events designed to bring residents together through literacy and strengthen bonds within our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert Andeweg, Mayor of the City of Urbandale, on behalf of the Urbandale City Council and Urbandale Public Library, do hereby promote the

All Urbandale Reads Program and the reading of this excellent book to all Urbandale residents.

SIGNED AND SEALED this 9th day of April, 2019.

Robert D. Andeweg, Mayor
